IMPORTANT RECITAL NOTES:

- This Recital Handbook has all recital information from hair & makeup, to costumes, to tickets, and everything in between. Please read through this and hold onto it to help you through Recital Season!
- Recital Costumes are starting to be handed out! With pictures, dress rehearsals, and recitals fast approaching, it is very important that you put your costume away in the closet and do not take it out or wear it until it is needed. We do not want them to be worn and get ruined or dirty before they are needed for the performance. Costumes cannot be replaced!
- Attendance is very important for the remainder of the year with teachers working on choreography. Of course, if your dancer is sick, they should stay home and participate in class via Zoom if possible.
- The studio will be closed Sunday April 3rd through Saturday April 9th for Spring Break.
- All recital information is also available online at tysod.com/recitals. Please stay tuned to our weekly eblasts as more information becomes available.
